

Hello!

Thanks for considering working with me.

Like you, I'm passionate about the power literacy has to change lives. I also know from my own experience, planning, implementing and assessing leaves little time for teachers to create and build a whole school literacy skills progression - that's where I come in!

I help teachers embed the WHY of phonics, spelling and grammar to the centre of their teaching. Along with the planning and resources I share, this enables consistency and clear progression throughout each year group.

My sessions are interactive and practical with 'inspirational' and 'fun' being the most frequent feedback!

I'm also on hand to support you beyond your initial input via my Online Training.
