JAZ AMPAW-FARR

All you need for expert, authentic broadcast comment on education & resilience.

Resilience and recovery after crisis or community trauma - youth violence, knife crime, school incidents, Persistent absence and disengagement, Teacher retention and wellbeing, Literacy and life chances Inclusion and belonging, Social mobility and educational equity, Education and leadership resilience, Systemic change in education and leadership.

A fresh voice and a gift for editors and producers.
See Jaz in action with a video Q&A

JAZ AMPAW-FARR

Resilience and leadership expert | Former teacher | Adviser on education and inclusion | International keynote speaker

An expert voice for broadcast on:

- Education and leadership resilience
- Teacher retention and wellbeing
- Social mobility and educational equity
- Inclusion and belonging
- Persistent absence and disengagement
- Literacy and life chances
- Systemic change in education and leadership
- Resilience and recovery after crisis or community trauma

Why book Jaz?

Combines lived experience (care, poverty, educational exclusion) with deep professional insight (former teacher, leadership advisor to MATs and organisations across the UK and internationally)

Trusted media voice — direct, warm, human, able to handle sensitive or high-profile stories with credibility and care

Highly effective in crisis moments — speaks powerfully and constructively when news stories break (youth violence, knife crime, school tragedies, leadership under pressure)

Broadcast-ready — short-form or long-form, panel, live news, documentary or current affairs

Recent broadcast appearances include BBC Breakfast, BBC Radio 4, ITV News, Five Live, Times Radio.

For producers, editors and guest bookers — all you need for expert, authentic comment on education and resilience.

For media bookings contact Jaz directly on:

jaz@jazampawfarr.com

07941 533 740